FOUNDER'S NOTE

Dear Purnkuti Family,

“True impact is created when opportunities reach people, skills turn into confidence, and communities become empowered to shape their own futures.”

This month has been a journey of expanding possibilities and creating sustainable change. With every initiative, we continued moving closer to our vision of building empowered communities.

We are proud to share that Label Purnkuti, our women-led production unit, is now fully operational at our Raviwar Peth Centre, creating more opportunities for women to develop skills, earn with dignity, and become financially independent.

Our commitment to reaching more communities has taken a new step forward with the launch of Project Dhara in Barh (Bihar), where we have started our first vocational tailoring training. This expansion reflects our belief that empowerment should reach every community, regardless of geography.

Every woman we support carries a unique story of courage and determination. Through Project Dhara, we witnessed this through Pratibha's journey — a single mother working towards building her own future through skill development and entrepreneurship. Her dream of starting her own beauty parlour reminds us that the right support can help women transform their lives and inspire others.

We are grateful to receive Gold Certification on the Give.do platform, strengthening our commitment towards transparency, accountability, and creating deeper trust with our donors and supporters.

We continue to create meaningful opportunities for organisations through impactful employee engagement. Companies looking to combine creativity and sustainability can connect with us.

Together, we are creating pathways of hope, independence, and lasting transformation.

With gratitude,

Sneha Bharti

EMPLOYEE

ENGAGEMENT DRIVES

We conducted two employee engagement activities focused on creativity and sustainability – a Wall Art Making activity at Bloomberg Data Services, Kalyani Nagar, and a Tote Bags from T-Shirts upcycling activity at Citibank. Both drives encouraged employee participation, creativity, and team bonding.

Interested in conducting an engaging employee drive at your workplace? Connect with us to bring creative and impactful experiences to your team.
